State Farm awards CEDAM $10,000 Grant

Lansing, MI - The Community Economic Development Association (CEDAM) is pleased to announce a $10,000 grant from State Farm to support its Comprehensive Community Development Institute (CCDI). The CCDI training program assists CEDAM's members in their efforts to rebuild and rejuvenate Michigan communities. CEDAM is proud to partner with State Farm in this endeavor.

"As a company with agents located throughout Michigan, many of us work first-hand with community development organizations. We understand the challenges that organizations face today and we are thankful that there are top-notch training opportunities through CEDAM that give them the tools to increase their abilities. State Farm is thrilled to support CEDAM's Comprehensive Community Development Institute," says, Lansing State Farm Agent, Jim Hanlin.

Since its inception, CEDAM has trained more than 400 community development professionals through CCDI and other trainings. "CEDAM is proud to provide its members with this valuable and timely program," said Jamie Schriener-Hooper, CEDAM Executive Director. "It is because of the generosity of organizations like State Farm that we are able to continue this vital work."

State Farm insures more cars and homes than any other insurer in the U.S., is the leading insurer of watercraft and is also a leading insurer in Canada.
